A loving husband and father, he spared nothing to provide the best for them. He will always be remembered for his love.

Known as Gerry, he was an avid sports enthusiast, a New York Yankee and New Yorker at heart. He liked to golf and travel, and loved the movies, having unmatched knowledge of movies and actors of different eras. He was a people's person, generous at heart, loved everyone and loved by everyone. He had a fantastic memory of events and people including details, names, places and events. He easily made friends and

He was smart and intelligent, a quick learner and readily adapted to using computer technology and programs professionally and personally.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Psalm 23
